SEEING THE BOYS LEAVE FOR CAMP

Thousands of Parents in to See Army Boys Leave for Camp This Thursday

Portage county is making history. Our children and their children will look to the history pages and read where Wisconsin and Portage county in 1917 gave her boys to fight for liberty and the rights of the nation.

On the Thursday thousands of people gathered at Stevens Point to see the National army boys off for camp. This occasion has become a national occasion. It is the first time in the history of the world that so many parents have seen their boys in uniform. GERMAN WAR PLOT ON CONGRESS REVEALED BY STATE DEPARTMENT

Startling Exposure Shows That Ambassador Bernstorff Asked Berlin for Money to Influence United States Law-makers Against Decriminalization of War-Suit Cable Just Before Unrestricted Shipment of War Weapons Was Announced—Pledge and Intrigue Traced to German Embassy.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Secretary of State Lansing today made public in a statement to Congress the details of a German plot to influence the passage of the proposed arms embargo bill by the United States Congress. The plot, which was exposed by the State Department, involved Ambassador Bernstorff of Germany and a number of German agents who sought to bribe members of Congress to support the bill.

Interrogated by Congress, Bernstorff admitted that he had received offers of money from German agents to influence the passage of the bill. He stated that he had refused these offers and that he had reported them to the State Department. The State Department then conducted an investigation which revealed the details of the plot.

The State Department's investigation showed that Bernstorff had received offers of money from German agents to influence the passage of the bill. The offers were made by a number of German agents who were working in the United States. Bernstorff refused the offers and reported them to the State Department.
